RESIDENT OF THE MONTH

Norman Wanty

Norman was born Sept. 1, 1933 at home in Ypsilanti.

He was one of 4 children born to Mark & Calista Wanty. His siblings were Mark Jr., Barbara and Janet.

The family moved to Ann Arbor in 1937. Norman graduated from high school in 1953.

He belonged to the National Guard where he joined the Army and was stationed in Germany in 1957.

He worked as a meter reader for the City of Ann Arbor, then moved on to become an operator at the water filtration plant for 38 years. To keep busy after retirement, he worked at Meijer in south Ann Arbor at the layaway counter.

He married Bonnie in 1976. He and his wife participated in showing cats for many years.

Norman loved to bake and he always made his favorite things for their family gatherings.

Bonnie passed in 2009.

Norman has a great thirst for history. He planned many of his vacations around historical sites, especially the American presidents. He always documented his vacations with photography. While in Ann Arbor, he enjoyed sharing his trips with friends and family by showing his slides and using his sense of humor to capture the moment. He has donated photos of the Ann Arbor area to historical collections.

Riding his bicycle, hiking and metal detecting were his hobbies.

EMPLOYEE OF THE MONTH

Diane Hill

I live in Jackson, Michigan with my husband, Pat. In August we will be married for 47 years.

We have 2 children, our daughter Tracy and our son Rusty. We have 4 grandchildren, 3 step grandchildren and 1 step great granddaughter.

I love watching my grandchildren play sports and also going camping with them . Knitting, reading, watching Nascar and MSU football are some of my hobbies.

What I like most about working at Legacy is laughing and talking with the Residents and listening to them reminisce about their lives.

I have been working here since March, 2009.

Our Residents

The Residents have been busy this month. A few of the the things we have done, painting, drumming to music, coffee hour, dog visits, and enjoying our entertainers.
