AUGUST RESIDENT OF THE MONTH

GLORIA BEEMER

Gloria Beemer was born Gloria Ann Adams to Horace and Arlene Adams. She lived in Litchfield, Michigan her entire life.

Gloria attended Litchfield Community Schools, she graduated in 1956 and married Dean R. Wooden on June 23, 1957.

Gloria and Dean bought a farm south of Litchfield and raised their family there. Together they have four children, David, Diane, Debbie and Daniel.

Gloria went to Jackson Business University in Jackson, Michigan where she completed her Associates Degree.

However, she spent the majority of her life being a homemaker, mother, wife and devoted Christian. She never cared to be in the limelight, but was content to see her family flourish.

Dean lived until 2002 where he went to Heaven to be with God. Later in life, Gloria remarried Raymond Beemer and they enjoyed a wonderful two years together before Ray passed away.

Gloria is well known for her knitting and cross stitching for which she received local and state awards.

Gloria's goal in life was to give to others, whether it was a simple pat on the back, lunch money or a comforting gesture.
