OCTOBER 2022 RESIDENT OF THE MONTH
EILEEN GONDEK

Mary Eileen Westfall was Born in 1931. She never went by Mary and chose to be called Eileen. She grew up in Ann Arbor Michigan and attended St. Thomas High School and then went on to Cleary College.

Eileen married her first husband on Valentine's Day 1953. They lived in Ann Arbor until 1968 then moved to Chelsea, Michigan.

Edward Gilbreath passed in 1969 leaving Eileen with 4 children to raise between the ages of 7 - 12 years old.

She had to go to work and got a job with the State of Michigan Department of Corrections in 1970 and retired from there as a secretary to the warden in 1992.

Eileen married her second husband in 1974 (Gerald Gondek, he passed in 2003). She has been blessed with 4 children, 8 grandchildren and 9 great grandchildren.

She volunteered for St. Louis School (disabled adult facility for many years) and was very involved in St. Mary's Catholic Church in Chelsea, Michigan.

Her hobbies included playing bridge, sewing, bowling, golfing, reading and baking. She enjoyed traveling, her cottage in Tawas and spending time with her many friends.
